

SLAIN BY CIRCUS ELEPHANT.

Young of Apertures for Walter Hidridge Killed.

WINGBURY, Tenn., Sept. 12.—Walter Hidridge, an animal trainer with the "Macy" circus, was yesterday killed by a circus elephant at the circus performance here. Hidridge was struck on the head with a stick, the animal suddenly cutted her trunk about Hidridge and in the presence of a throng of spectators lifted him high in the air, then dashed him to the ground.

"Macy" then placed Hidridge to the ground and drove her trunk through his body. Macy with revolvers pointed to the crowd and a dash shot were fired into the elephant's body, but apparently the animal did not seem to add to the fury of the beast.

VILLA DEAD? WON'T
EVEN GUESS, SAYS
DODD, HIS PURSUER

Brigadier General Who Chased
Bandit Tells of Cavalry's
Smashing Ride.

Brig. Gen. George A. Dodd, who crowned his career of forty-four years in the United States army by smashing Villa's forces last spring, is staying at the Hotel Astor. The forced march he made with his 60 men for five days through the passes of the Sierra Madre Range, ending in a ride of fifty-five miles in seventeen hours, will be talked of among army men as long as there is such a thing as cavalry. The battle of Guerrero can never be forgotten.

No one seeing Gen. Dodd for the first time would guess that he is one of the most dashing cavaliers since Sheridan. He is tall and spare, straight as a whetstone in spite of his sixty-three years, with a very quiet manner and a voice of notable mildness. There is hardly a gray hair in his head. It is in the clear gaze of his keen blue eyes that one gets an indication of the fighting man. In the wide, well-rounded forehead, the piercing eyes with the drooping lids and the high aquiline nose he remarkably resembles Sheridan.

When a reporter for The Evening World called on Gen. Dodd today he happened to be reading a World dispatch from Washington telling that Gen. Pershing, commanding the United States forces in Mexico, is still unable to get any proof that Villa is dead.

"Villa is certainly very adroit," said Gen. Dodd. "There are able hands there in Mexico, but he has a wonderful family of slipping away and covering his trail, as well as keeping himself in the limelight all the while."

"I couldn't even guess," replied the soldier who came nearer than any one else to capturing Villa. "He drove the Garzapatista force out of Guerrero on March 27, but in the night his leg was shattered below the knee. He knew we were coming after him, but he had no idea we were so near. What fooled him was that we doubled up on him on the last day and night, and by keeping it up for seventeen hours we were able to surprise his 60 men under Gen. Riosco Hernandez at 4 A. M."

"We learned later that Villa had left Guerrero at 2 A. M., ordering his people to follow at 4 A. M. They had begun to saddle when we struck them. They had sentinels, of course, but thinking we were twenty-four hours away they were careless. As we began to fire they stood for awhile, but they soon broke and ran in all directions. We followed them for ten miles through different canyons, and they scattered so wide that it was hard to get many. They lost fifty men; we had four wounded."

Gen. Dodd spoke of these things in a casual way. It was all part of the day's work. Incidentally he had trained for the achievement at Guerrero by helping capture Germanos in 1911, and he had been in the Philippines. He was specially mentioned for bravery at the Battle of Santiago, and was distinguished in the Philippines. Thousands of New Yorkers remember him as the Captain of the cavalry detachment whose wonderful horse-

HEALTH OF N. Y. TROOPS ON THE BORDER IS FINE

No New Cases of Paratyphoid Are Discovered Among the Guardsmen.

MAIDEN, Sept. 12.—A second day marked by no new cases of paratyphoid and by the isolation of an new suspect was recorded in the New York division last night. Reports from San Antonio indicate the presence of paratyphoid all along the border.

The general health of the division continues at its high standard. The sick rate for August was shown today to have been 1.58-100 per cent., as compared with 1.57-100 per cent. for July.

Reorganization of the division as a result of the departure of the Third, Fourteenth and Seventy-first was completed yesterday when the Sixty-ninth moved into the Seventy-first's camp at Maiden, and the Second was ordered to move into the Third's camp at Sterling, where it was sent from Mission upon the spread of paratyphoid there.

Baker Says Guard Will Be Sent Home When It Can Be Spared.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—To get at root rumors that various units of the National Guard soon were to be withdrawn from the border, Secretary Baker reiterated today that there was no fixed policy regarding maintenance of the State troops there, and that the length of their stay depended on the status of the border situation. He said they would be brought home as soon as they could be spared.

Expert Bacteriologist Is Needed at Camp Whitman.

Need of an expert bacteriologist under military service at Camp Whitman is pointed out in a report made yesterday by Lieut. Col. Brooks, chief of the staff of Major Gen. Appleton.

"Experience has shown the imperative necessity of such a man to conduct examinations of water, make cultures from suspicious disease conditions and especially to make tests to determine specific infection such as dysentery, typhoid, diphtheria and malaria," the report reads.

The isolation of Camp Whitman is good from a sanitary standpoint, Dr. Brooks said. The water supply is now ample, according to the report.

14TH AND 3D EXPECTED.

Camp Whitman Awaits Regiments.

The Fourteenth and Third Regiments are expected to arrive at Camp Whitman today. When last heard from the Fourteenth was crossing Indiana. The Third was in Chittanooga.

No visitors will be allowed at either the Third or Fourteenth or Seventy-first camps until the present quarantine, which is expected to last ten days, is lifted.

NUTMEG MILITIA TO VOTE.

Connecticut Will Send Men to Border to Collect Ballots.

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 12.—This General Assembly at a special session yesterday passed legislation enabling guardsmen at the border to vote at the November election, and appropriated $100,000 for the relief of dependents of the soldiers. There was practically no opposition to either measure.

Two commissioners will be appointed by the Governor to go to the border and collect the ballots.

HIGH COST OF WAR.

Worth $1,000,000, a St. Louis gentleman just gone to his reward, was left papers showing he collected a Civil War pension of $25 a month.

NECKER, THE UNDERTAKER,
DIES AFTER OPERATION

Leader in Move for Cheaper
Funerals, Conducted $3,000
Burials a Year.

William Necker, undertaker, who made it cheaper to die, passed away yesterday in the North Hudson Hospital, Union Hill, N. J., following an operation on Thursday. He was forty-five years old.

After establishing branch establishments over New Jersey, Mr. Necker invaded New York six years ago and increased his business until he conducted more than 2,000 funerals each year. He cut the cost of the undertaker's services by 50 per cent. in the New York City area. He was a member of the New York City Board of Health and the New York City Board of Fire Commissioners. He was also a member of the New York City Board of Education and the New York City Board of Police Commissioners.
